Bruce Springsteen Event Guidelines

Updated 10/2 at 1:30pm

- This event begins at 12:00pm, Monday October 3. All times subject to change without notice with respect to Mr. Springsteen's schedule.
- Customers can begin lining up at 4:00am, Monday October 3. Please be advised The Grove is private property and camping out is not permitted. Anyone attempting to enter The Grove property before 4:00am will be asked to leave the property.
- At 4:00am, a Barnes & Noble employee will begin escorting customers from 3rd St. onto The Grove property.
- When customers enter the line, a limited number wristbands will be distributed first come first served, and securely attached to you.
 - One wristband per person—no exceptions.
 - Once the event has reached capacity, anyone else in line will not be able to attend the event.
 - Wristbands are not transferable or to be sold.
 - We are not honoring any VIP lists or held spots in line. You must be present at the time we begin wristbanding to be able to attend the event.
 - Children ages 12 and under can stay with a parent who has a valid wristband.
 - If your wristbands have been removed, tampered with, or altered in any way you will not be allowed to attend the event.
- The store will not take reservations for wristbands or any special requests.
- Once wristbands are distributed, we will begin escorting customers with a valid wristband into the store in groups to purchase the pre-signed book.
 - One pre-signed book per person—no exceptions.
 - You will receive the book after you meet Mr. Springsteen.
- The event is meet & greet only with the purchase of one pre-signed book from this location—no exceptions. No signing or performance.
- You are allowed one posed photo with Mr. Springsteen. An employee of Barnes & Noble will take the picture with your phone or camera. Please note: Mr. Springsteen will not sign anything, so no memorabilia or other items are allowed. Unwrapped gifts will be collected before you enter the event space.
- Personal bags should be limited in size and only one bag per customer. Bags will be inspected prior to entering the line. When you are next to meet Mr. Springsteen, you will give your bag to a Barnes & Noble employee who will hold it for you before you approach him. No personal belongings allowed when you meet him.
- Barnes & Noble is not responsible for bags left unattended.

All rules subject to change without notice.
